PARENTS:

- Is your student really prepared to succeed in the real world?
- Does your student have all the skills businesses are looking for?
- Does your student have competitive edge skills?

Bob Wolf, founder of HOPE the Student's Bridge to Business and HOPE Skills Presentations will give a complimentary, 90-minute presentation - with discussions for parents and guardians of students in middle school (grades 6,7,8), high school and college. He will discuss these five essential skills:

Bob has been presenting these skills for over 16 years to high schools, colleges, middle schools, PTAs, and educators.
